Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 28 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with clear or sunny spells.

Today:
A fine, dry and sunny day. Temperatures a touch higher than recent days, particularly away from the east coast where a few patches of lower cloud might form. Light southeast breezes. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Perhaps more in the way of cloud during the evening but clear spells still likely. Some lower cloud may affect the East Lothian coast later in the night. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Largely dry and bright with, especially across Dumfries and Galloway, some warm or very warm sunshine. However eastern coasts cloudier at times, the cloud spreading inland overnight. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Staying dry and continuing to feel warm. Low cloud may extend westwards through much of Southern Scotland on Wednesday and Thursday morning but will clear. Perhaps some showers Friday.
